

MEMBERSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

(Effective from 1 February 2019)

1. Duration

- a) When joining Queen's Sport you are agreeing to remain a member for the duration of the membership package you have purchased. Once paid your membership is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- b) If you pay for your membership monthly there is no long term contract, you can end your membership by completing a member cancellation form.
- c) If you want your cancellation to take effect from the end of the month you must complete your cancellation form on or before the 6th day of that month.
- d) If you cancel between the 7th and last day of the month your membership will end on the last of the next month.
- e) If you pay for your membership monthly you may upgrade your membership package at any time. If you wish to downgrade your membership, it will not take effect until the next direct debit deduction.
- f) Members may freeze their membership by providing official documentation, evidencing that they are freezing under medical or work related grounds. Each case will be reviewed on an individual basis.

2. Peak and off-peak memberships

- a) Peak memberships gain entry during facility opening hours.
- b) Off-peak memberships allow access to facilities from 6.30am – 3.30pm (last entry) Monday to Thursday, and all-day Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
- c) Off-peak Queen's Student memberships allow access to the facilities from 6.30am – 3.30pm (last entry) and 8pm-10pm Monday to Thursday, and all-day Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
- d) Please note all activities will cease at 10pm weekdays and 6pm weekends.

3. Associate members (Spouse/ Partner/ Sibling/ Retired/ Child)

- a) Associate Member is a second person, living at the same address as the main member and must be able to show proof e.g. utility bill.
- b) Main members may have one adult associate member but there is no restriction on the number of child associate members. The main member must be the parent or guardian of associate child members.
- c) Children must be over 5 and under 16 years of age to be entitled to an associate membership. Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times and are entitled to swimming and racquets only.
- d) Retired members (over 60) are entitled to associate membership.
- e) A main member may add on an associate member anytime on a monthly membership but all payments are paid through the main members account.
- f) When taking out membership, main members and associate members may mix their membership type although the main member must take out the higher valued package. Both membership packages must have the same end date.
- g) Main members must be present when adding on an associate member.

4. Fees

- a) All member direct debit applications are subject to an administration fee.
- b) Queen's Sport reserves the right to waive administration fees at any time.
- c) Membership packages are reviewed on an annual basis and may be subject to change.
- d) Members who do not follow the correct cancellation procedure (outlined in section 1) will be charged an administration fee when re-joining. They will also have to pay the outstanding amount for the failed month.
- e) Members will be contacted 10 days in advance if direct debit amounts are to be increased although this will not apply if the amount is reduced. Please refer to Direct Debit mandate rules.

5. Direct Debit Failures

- a) If your direct debit fails, through no fault of Queen's Sport, your membership will be suspended. To reactivate your membership you must pay for the month which failed and any other monies owed. An additional administration charge of £10 will also be added to reactivate your account.
- b) If your direct debit fails three times within a 12 month period Queen's Sport reserves the right to cancel your membership – in this instance to reactivate your membership you must take out a lump sum package.

6. Membership card

- a) Queen's Students and Queen's Staff will use their Student/Staff card to gain access to Queen's Sport. All other members will be issued with a membership card upon joining.
- b) Photographs must be taken for security reasons and for our records. If a member declines they must carry photographic identification each time they come in or they could be refused entry.
- c) Your membership card is for your use only and should not be used by anyone else. Should anyone be found using your card, your membership of Queen's Sport will be reviewed.
- d) Queen's student cards being used by someone else will be sent to student records to determine the next course of action.
- e) Your membership card or receipt must be shown upon request by any member of Queen's Sport staff. If you forget or fail to produce your membership card when requested a flag will go against your account. 3 flags against your account in any 6 month period could lead to entry refusal.
